

EDGAR ALLAN TALKS

He Tells Why He Went to Norfolk to Attend the Committee Meeting.

LAMB REQUESTED HIS PRESENCE.

Executive Committee Recognized Him as the Head of the Republican Party in This City—Regrets That General Bolling Was Removed.

Mr. Edgar Allan has returned from Norfolk, where he went in response to a letter from Colonel Lamb, inviting him to attend the session of the Republican State Committee, and assist in securing a settlement of the vexed question as to who holds the city chairmanship of Richmond.

To a Dispatch reporter, who called upon Mr. Allan yesterday in regard to his trip to Norfolk, he said that Dr. Patrick Henry Clark Noble had published a card in his (Noble's) official organ, the Planet, since the adjournment of the State convention, claiming that he was still chairman of the party here, and would shortly call a meeting for the purpose of reorganization, and urging upon all Republicans to take no heed to any call issued from any other source.

ALLAN WROTE LAMB.

Mr. Allan stated that he sent a copy of this paper to Colonel Lamb, and asked of the situation, taking some definite action, as it was about time to commence organization for the national campaign. The result of this communication was the request from Colonel Lamb asking Mr. Allan to appear before the State Committee last Thursday. At that time, Mr. Allan stated that he had written Colonel Lamb, and that he had also addressed them on the subject. At the conclusion of the discussion the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, the State convention recognized the committee in Richmond as represented by General Edgar Allan as chairman, and the State Committee, therefore, declares that it regards said organization as the local Republican organization of said city."

METHODS NOT HARMONIOUS.

The question was also raised in regard to the city chairmanship of Norfolk, and it was proposed to accept the two together, but, upon objection being made, the Norfolk city chairmanship was referred to the committee to be adjourned without taking any action.

When asked to state what effect the action of the committee would have on matters other than the chairmanship of Norfolk, Mr. Allan said he referred not to talk for publication on that subject. He said he differed widely from the course pursued in calling the committee together for one purpose, when the real object was another, and that the convention adopted a method not calculated to produce that harmony so essential to party success. He regarded it as particularly unwise to remove from the Executive Committee General S. H. Bolling, whose long experience as a member, and whose conservative counsel and wise judgment would have made him the most valuable adjunct of that body. Mr. Allan further stated that the recent trouble with the State organization, it was not politic for him to discuss these matters, as anything he might say might be regarded in the light of opposition to the State chairmanship, whereas, all his contents have been defensive warfare against what he deemed the assertion of authority, and unjust treatment of himself.

THE COMMITTEE'S EXPLANATION.

Official Statement as to Why the Mayor Was Not Invited.

The Committee of three appointed Thursday night by the Executive Committee of the reunion to publish a statement as to why Mayor Taylor was not invited to participate in the parade of last week and occupy a seat on the grandstand in Monroe Park, yesterday prepared the following:

Richmond, Va., July 10, 1896.

The undersigned having been appointed to formulate a statement on behalf of the Reunion Committee in this matter of the non-attendance of the Mayor in the parade of July 2d, desire to say:

That in their opinion the failure of the Mayor to receive an invitation to appear in that parade was due wholly to the lack of a Committee on Invitations. Both the Reunion Committee and the Jefferson Davis Monument Association early and formally determined to have no committee on invitations, and it was hoped that by eliminating it, not only would the exceeding cordiality of handsomely engraved invitations be avoided, but that no mistakes would be made, and that no special invitations should be sent out, our experience on similar occasions having warned us of trouble in this direction. Again and again special invitations were asked for, but they were uniformly refused with the explanation that none would be given. The only case in which the rule thus established was departed from was in the case of the Governor and Mayor to make welcoming speeches in connection with the case of the Council to appear in the parade. The invitations to the former were the action of General Peyton White, chairman of the Reunion Committee, which action, however, was unanimously approved by the committee as soon as reported to it. As far as the Mayor is concerned, we are assured that his good sense will make him see that a body which placed him in the parade, and which high honor in the opening of the convention could not have itself intended to put a slight upon him at any subsequent portion of the proceedings, and that he would see to it that he would not allow any one else to do so. He will not fail to observe, moreover, that of the three special invitations to functions of the reunion he was the recipient of one of them; that he was treated in all respects as the Governor, who himself received no special invitation, but so appeared and took his proper place as the Chief Executive of the Commonwealth, to the credit of all Virginians. We regret that his Honor the Mayor did not do the same thing.

MEYTON WISE,

J. TAYLOR ELLISON,

GEORGE L. CHRISTIAN,

For the Reunion Committee.

Officers of Lee Council.

At a regular meeting the following officers of R. E. Lee Council, No. 11, Jr. O. U. A. M., were installed by District-Committee-Councilor, J. E. Lee, Jr., and W. H. Whitlock: Vice-Councilor, G. G. Williams; Recording Secretary, A. B. Ogilvie; Assistant Secretary, J. S. Taylor; Financial Secretary, W. T. Atkinson; Treasurer, John B. Allen; Conductors, E. A. Folkes; Warden, U. M. Harmon; Inside Sentinel, Philip Samuel; Outside Sentinel, T. V. Iudis; Trustees, W. B. Palmer; Junior Past-Councilor, John M. Blake; Representative State Council, John B. Allen; Alternates, W. H. Adams.

To the Milwaukee Convention.

The Virginia delegation to the International Convention of the Baptist Young People's Union Association will leave Monday by the Chesapeake and this 2:30 P. M. train. Some of the delegates may go to Washington to-day and spend Sunday in attendance on the grand Christian Endeavor meeting. These will join the Virginia party en route. It is expected that about twenty persons will go to the convention from this State.

Members of the Old First to Meet.

There will be an important meeting of the old First Virginia Regiment Association to-night at the residence of Charles E. Loch, No. 1012 east Main street, for the election of officers for the ensuing year, and for the purpose of making arrangements for the association's thirty-fifth annual reunion. Another important matter to be discussed at the meeting will be the disposition to be made of Colonel Skinner's sword, which is at present in the custody of the association.

ANOTHER DAY OF RAIN.

Hard Showers at Intervals—The State of the River.

The hopes of those who longed for clear weather and sunny skies were dashed to the ground yesterday, when the black clouds still hovered over the city, and at intervals during the day opened themselves, and again soaked the streets and every one on them. The weather is certainly getting monotonous, and a change is much desired.

The river at Columbia yesterday afternoon, was 25-30 feet above high-water mark, and rising, and 112 at Scott's Landing, and 113 at May's bridge. The river was 2 feet above the high-water mark. Mr. Craig, who is an authority on everything that concerns the noble James in the neighborhood of this city, said he did not think the water would rise over 10 feet. This would not cause the water to overflow its banks enough to submerge Main street or the streets in the neighborhood of the river.

Good Prospects for Tobacco.

It has been a long time since the outlook of the tobacco crop was as bright as it is at present. The average amount of rain has been very beneficial to the plant, and the crop will be enormous in quantity and splendid in quality. Everything has been favorable to growing tobacco. The rains, fortunately, have not been accompanied by such a season of drought as in such a season it could not help but grow. The chances are now largely in favor of the crop being all that the farmers anticipate. Such seasons as this are very seldom interrupted by storms that do damage to growing crops.

A Small Police-Court Docket.

Yesterday morning passed off quietly in the Police Court, there being an unusually small docket. Henry L. Leigh was fined $50 for keeping a house open on Sunday, June 8th. Mr. Leigh paid the fine before court, and no hearing was required.

The case of Charles H. Holcher.

charged with keeping his barroom open on Sunday, was continued until the 14th, in the absence of important witnesses.

John Kennedy was convicted of netting.

larceny on the charge of stealing a bride, valued at $2 from H. Solde, and sentenced to serve three months in the city jail.

Death of Mrs. E. H. Ferguson.

Mrs. Sallie A. E. Ferguson, wife of Mr. E. H. Ferguson, of Barton Heights, died at 7 o'clock yesterday morning at the Old Dominion Hospital. She was a consistent member of the Second Baptist church, and a lady beloved by all who knew her. The family came here three or four years ago from Danville, she leaves a husband and six children. The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock this morning from the Second Baptist church.

Death of a Young Lady.

Miss G. Young Bowyer, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Bowyer, of East Grace street, died at the Retreat for the Sick yesterday morning. Miss Bowyer was a young lady of lovely disposition, and though her illness was long and painful, she bore it without murmur.

"Washing made graceful."

(After a sketch in New York Times.)

We want to show it, because this seems to be a woman who uses Pearlina (use with-out soap). She's doing no work to speak of, you see—she doesn't look as if she ever had to. She appears to be rinsing out the clothes, after letting them soak in Pearlina (use with-out soap) and water, which is about all the labor required.

The washboard we don't understand—unless she's washing it. Women who use Pearlina (use with-out soap) don't need a washboard. They don't have that tiresome, wearing rubbing over it. But for cleaning washboards or wood work or paint or anything of the kind, then they want Pearlina.

Washing can't be made graceful unless it is made easy. Of all the ways of washing that are perfectly harmless, the easiest, quickest, most economical, is with Pearlina.
